

6th Pandayang Lino Brocka Political Film and New Media Festival
Terms and Conditions for the Intensive Workshops

The selected filmmaker for the 6th Pandayang Lino Brocka Political Film and New Media intensive workshops, upon signing this terms and conditions agrees to all the provisions stated herein:

1. The 6th Pandayang Lino Brocka Political Film and New Media Festival Intensive Workshops which comprises of 5 courses: (1) Scriptwriting, (2) Film Directing, (3) Digital Cinematography, (4) Non-Linear Editing, and (5) Sound Design, is free of charge for the selected filmmakers.
2. The selected filmmaker may take at most 2 of his/her crew to any of the workshops.
3. Upon selection, the filmmaker agrees to attend and finish all of the workshops and finish outputs required by workshop facilitators.
4. After the workshops, the filmmaker agrees to produce a film or any audio-visual output based on the concept submitted during application. The film that will be produced will automatically become part of the official selection for the 6th Pandayang Lino Brocka Political Film and New Media Festival that will run from August to October 2014 and will be screened in different schools, communities and workplaces Metro Manila and nearby regions.
5. The filmmaker agrees that the output must be finalized on the last week of July 2014 in time for the festival launch on August 29, 2014.
6. There is no financial grant for the production of the film, however, the organizer of the festival, Tudla Productions, upon agreement with the filmmaker may co-produce his/her film and provide additional crew and equipment for the production.

Signature over Printed Name of Applicant

Date